B. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION

1(Note: Information furnished by Harry May, Management Analyst in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics.)

1. The building was constructed by Lord and Burnham on purchase order dated August 24, 1976. The erection of the shell was completed in October 1976.
2. The heating work was done by Lord and Burnham and was completed in January 1977.
3. The electrical work is being done by University personnel (February 1977).
4. The building will replace Agronomy space in the Lazenby Greenhouses (127). When Agronomy gets the new greenhouse now being planned, Building S 81 will probably be used entirely by Turf Research.
